NOTICE.

LL those indebted to Evan Hagler by bill of Account, are hereby notified that books are in my hands as trustee; and Evan Hagler assigned his books to Mrs. Morrison & Harris, for the use of them, on the 13th day of December 1837, and no offset will be taken at date.

H. C. OWENS, Trustee.
All those indebted, are requested to pay, by Cash or Note, immediately as the business must and shall be settled; and those that do not settle by the 1st of February, their accounts will be set out for collection.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS!

AVING seen so many sharp notices in the last Journal, for debts to be forwarded and settle them accounts in Cash or Note, and the dreadful consequences which will result from a failure only, we almost feel a deficiency in ring a similar alarm in the ears of our debtors; but justice to ourselves demands a severe punishment, and we feel confident no reasonable man will raise any objection to closing his account once a year. If any is out of the question, we will take a signature, and in doing this we render the much more beautiful in appearance less liable to the production of litigation.

We are still very anxious to sell to our old friends and customers and so upon as reasonable terms as we consider with our interest.

WILLIAM D. ALEXANDER.
Treasurer.
I am sorry to say that I have sold all my stock of goods, and have nothing left but a few small articles which I have left in my shop for sale.

EDWARD SWAN.
Treasurer.

Edward Swan having succeeded me in the business, I heartily recommend them to my friends and the public as competent workmen, accommodating and punctual. I have no hesitation in saying that the firm will give more general satisfaction than has ever been given heretofore.

I intend to remain with them for some time for the purpose of closing my business.
